Continuing Professional Development

As a member of a leading global professional body, you understand the value of life-long learning. Whilst there is an obligation to participate in continuing professional development (CPD) as part of your professional membership, there are other, more integral reasons to maintain your CPD:
• it ensures you continually build the knowledge and skills you need to succeed in the competitive business environment

- it assists you in achieving your development and career goals
  it assists you to excel in your role, providing increased value to your organisation and your clients
- it provides transferable skills for increased employability
- it helps to build your reputation as a business leader when you renew your membership each year, you declare to comply with the MFPC Constitution, By- Laws and CPD obligations.

Who is required to meet the CPD Requirements?

All active RFP/Shariah RFP and Associate RFP/Shariah RFP designees are required to meet the CPD Requirements. (Newly registered RFP/Shariah RFP and Associate RFP/Shariah RFP designees are required to complete 30 (RFP) / 20 (Associate)-hours CPD for the subsequent years upon official registration)

How do members submit their CPD Hours/CPD Report?

Please submit your CPD submission via 1st.mfpc.org.my (MFPC Members Portal). CPD Guidelines can be download at MFPC website.

Does MFPC accept CPD from other associations/companies?

Members can collect and submit the CPD reports/points from individual financial institutions such as bank; insurance company; unit trust company; Takaful operator and FA/CMSL to the MFPC Secretariat.

MFPC also recognises CPD programmes conducted by the associations such as LIAM, MTA, FIMM, PIAM and SIDC. MFPC grants CPD points for lecturing, writing and publishing articles; continuous reading by subscription of financial magazine eg; The Edge, Economist; Money Compass etc.

What if I am no longer active in industry/retired or not in Malaysia?

You should notify CCB officially in writing to allow CCB to evaluate and make the necessary adjustment on case to case basis in your CPD fullfillment.

What happens if I cannot fulfill my CPD obligations?

The Ethics and Compliance Board is monitoring CPD fulfilment closely since this has been considered a professional obligation. The Board is in the position to recommend membership review; propose for mandatory training; refresher programme; membership suspension; as well as to report non-compliance to the regulatory bodies.

When do I need to complete my CPD?

RFP/Shariah RFP is required to complete 30-hours CPD training per year. Associate RFP/Shariah RFP is required to complete 20-hours CPD training per year. The CPD report(s) on number of CPD hours earned should be submitted to the 1stMFPC portal by 1st January each year.

How about 14 Hours of the Mandatory CPD Programme? Who should attend?

Who should attend? Effective 1st January 2015, all new RFP/Shariah RFP are required to fullfill 14 hours of mandatory CPD requirement within 24 months from the date of issuance of the RFP/Shariah RFP results.
